celebre monologo teatrale scritto e interpretato dall'attrice Roberta Biagiarelli, con la regia di Simona Gonella.

A Srebrenica è stata scritta una delle pagine più oscure del Novecento e anche da quel luogo occorre ripartire per ri-pensare l'Europa, per non cadere nell'errore di liquidare il conflitto balcanico come qualcosa di risolto e lontano nel tempo. Una lezione della memoria contro il pericolo dei nazionalismi, delle divisioni e delle manifestazioni di intolleranza.

Un'attrice sola sul palco, per più di un'ora, diventa narratrice e protagonista di una storia dove la Ragion di Stato e gli Interessi di Politica Internazionale hanno giocato...
